

HOPE & DISTRICT ARTS COUNCIL ARTS & CULTURE MAP

What is it?

An arts and culture inventory for residents, tourists, local organizations, and planners, that highlights the arts and cultural opportunities in the region. The free online and printed map highlights the creativity, culture, and history of Hope & District.

What's the purpose?

Increase community engagement and tourism by showcasing local artists, artisans, heritage, and unique culture of the region.

Who can be included?

Anyone or anything relating to arts and culture can be submitted through our Cultural Listing Form.

How can I participate?

Scan the QR code or contact us! There is no limit to the number of listings you can suggest, but submit each in its own separate form.

ARTS & CULTURE MAP - FAQ

What counts as art?

We define art as the expression or application of human creative skill and imagination.

What counts as culture?

We define culture as the manifestation of shared values, art, beliefs, aesthetics, and identity. We recognize culture as an expression of how people relate to nature, the physical environment, and place.

What if I don't have a location to list?

If you do not have a public location to list on the form, do not worry! Individual artists and online businesses can be listed on the Hope & District Arts Council's "Online Profiles" page located on the website.

My listing applies to multiple categories!

If the cultural listing you're submitting applies to multiple categories, please pick the ones that are most strongly related to the listing. Definitions can be found on the Hope & District Arts Council's website.

Why should I participate?

By submitting a cultural asset to the map, it can help raise awareness about your business, organization, history, or culture. Additionally, it acts as a free marketing tool!
